FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

LS 6436

BILL NUMBER: SB 153

NOTE PREPARED: Jan 29, 2013

BILL AMENDED:

SUBJECT: Employment of Children.

FIRST AUTHOR: Sen. Becker

FIRST SPONSOR: Rep. Crouch

BILL STATUS: As Passed Senate

FUNDS AFFECTED:     GENERAL DEDICATED FEDERAL

IMPACT: No Fiscal Impact

Summary of Legislation: The bill establishes the conditions under which a child between the ages of 12 and 18 who is employed or works as a youth athletic program referee, umpire, or official is exempt from the requirements of the state's Child Labor Law. The bill does require that the child be supervised by a parent or guardian while acting as a referee, umpire, or official at an athletic event.

Effective Date: Upon passage.

Explanation of State Expenditures: The Indiana Department of Labor's Bureau of Child Labor administers and enforces Indiana's Child Labor Law. The provisions contained within the bill are within the Bureau of Child Labor's routine administrative functions. The Bureau should be able to implement these provisions with no additional appropriations, assuming near customary agency staffing and resource levels.

Current law allows for exemptions from the Child Labor Law for children between the ages of 14 and 18 for farm laborers, domestic service providers, golf caddies, and newspaper carriers.
